Margaret River & Surrounds

From delicious food and great wine to beach stopovers and forests walks, the Margaret River and South West region is a holiday paradise. Spend lazy days on the beach or be active and explore the towering forests and hidden caves. With stunning scenery and gourmet produce, there is an experience to suit every traveller.

Head south from Perth along the coast for some seaside fun. At Bunbury, share the water with local Bottlenose dolphins. Further south at Busselton, stroll the longest timber jetty in the southern hemisphere then continue to Cape Naturaliste Lighthouse for a guided tour. Culinary connoisseurs, get your tastebuds ready. Margaret River boasts such a variety of gastronomic experiences you'll be overwhelmed with the options. Gourmet cheeses, chocolate and fudge are just the start. There's wine tasting and superb food all around the region. Have fun seeking out the best the area has to offer. Travel through towering Karri forests to amazing hidden cave systems like Mammoth Cave near the town of Margaret River or Ngilgi Cave at Yallingup.

At the most south westerly point of Australia is the historic Cape Leeuwin Lighthouse. Experienced walkers should explore the Cape to Cape Walk Track which runs for 135 kilometres from Cape Naturaliste to Cape Leeuwin and offers stunning coastal and forest scenery. The track has multiple access points making it ideal for full and half day walks.

On the way to Pemberton, stopover at Elephant Rocks of William Bay and the Valley of The Giants Treetop Walk in Walpole-Nornalup National Park is not to be missed. Find galleries and restaurants lining the streets in a quaint colonial setting. From June to October, see the migration of whales, one of the most amazing sights along the South West coast. Discover Denmark and Mount Barker. Swim, fish or surf on Wilson Inlet and marvel at the dramatic cliffs that surround the beaches, coves and bays.
